

K-STATE
Research and Extension

Extension Agronomy

eUpdate

---

05/20/2019

These e-Updates are a regular weekly item from K-State Extension Agronomy and Kathy Gehl, Agronomy eUpdate Editor. All of the Research and Extension faculty in Agronomy will be involved as sources from time to time. If you have any questions or suggestions for topics you'd like to have us address in this weekly update, contact Kathy Gehl, 785-532-3354 kgehl@ksu.edu, or Dalas Peterson, Extension Agronomy State Leader and Weed Management Specialist 785-532-0405 dpeterso@ksu.edu.

Subscribe to the eUpdate mailing list: <https://listserv.ksu.edu/cgi-bin?SUBED1=EUPDATE&A=1>

---

1. POSTPONED - Winter canola field day in Kingman County on May 20..... 3

1. POSTPONED - Winter canola field day in Kingman County on May 20

With the significant chance for heavy rain and thunderstorms today, the Kingman County canola field tour scheduled for today, May 20, at 10:00 am has been postponed until a later date. Details on the rescheduled date are pending and will be published in the eUpdate soon.

Monday, May 20 - Kingman County (POSTPONED)

For more information, contact Mike Stamm at 785-532-3871 or mjstamm@ksu.edu.